

Preface

VOLUME TWENTY-THREE of Life and Learning offers a selection of papers from the University Faculty for Life's 2013 conference. UFL is deeply grateful to the University of San Francisco for hosting this meeting, and in particular to Professor Thomas Cavanaugh of the Philosophy Department for making the arrangements for this meeting. We are also deeply in the debt of Professor Barbara Freres of Stritch University, who served as UFL's Program Chair. UFL would like to acknowledge the generous support of the Our Sunday Visitor Institute for this conference and the publication of these proceedings.

I would also like to offer my personal thanks to Professor Jacqueline Nolan-Haley of the Fordham University Law School for her invaluable help yet again, as so often before, in the reviewing the papers submitted for this volume.

Electronic versions of these papers and many of those delivered at other UFL conferences are available on our web site at www.uffl.org. For additional copies of this volume or for bound versions of the proceedings of our earlier conferences, please contact me at koterski@fordham.edu.
