

31th ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2021

JUNE 5th AFTERNOON ZOOM CONFERENCE

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS & CALL FOR LIFE & LEARNING SUBMISSIONS

PROLIFE FEMINISM, THE LAW, AND WOMEN'S HEALTH

2021 Smith Award Recipients: Drs. Keith and Elizabeth Cassidy (History & Psychology)

"Half a Century of Strife: The Abortion Controversy's Inescapable Centrality in Modern American History."

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Kathleen Mary Raviele, M.D. F.A.C.O.G.
American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology Fellow; USCCB Consultant;
Secretary of the Georgia Life Alliance

"Unmasking the Truth about Chemical Abortions"

Erika Bachiochi, J.D.
Ethics & Public Policy Center, Fellow
Abigail Adams Institute, Senior Fellow

"The Rights of Women: Toward a Dignitarian Feminism"

Angela Franks, Ph.D.
Professor of Theology
St. John's Seminary, Boston

"Biopolitics, Sexuality, and Women"

SCHEDULE

1:45 EDT: Welcome Social
2:00-2:30: Kathleen Raviele

2:30-3:00 EDT: Erika Bachiochi
3:00-3:15: Coffee Break
3:15-3:45 EDT: Angela Franks

3:45-4:15 EDT: Keith & Elizabeth Cassidy
4:15-4:45 EDT: Open Mike & Fellowship
7:30 EDT: Evening Fellowship

FREE ZOOM REGISTRATION: Email Fr. Koterski at Koterski@Fordham.edu by June 3RD

LIFE AND LEARNING SUBMISSIONS:

Email Working Title to Fr. Koterski by June 1st with Final Submissions by JULY 1st

Submission topics include the reproductive, spiritual, and mental health of women; historical, cultural, environmental, and economic motivations involved in choosing or not choosing to have children; prolife feminism; policies and laws supportive of pregnant women, families, and the culture of life; the rights of parents; embryo and fetal rights; rights of infants surviving abortion; disability rights of fetuses, infants, and those with brain injuries; rights to conscientious objection; abortion; infanticide; and euthanasia.